

Teen Dating Violence Prevention: Staff Training
Pre/Post Assessment

Training Date: _____

1. List four types of violence that can be seen in a teen dating relationship and an example of each:

(1) _____ Example: _____

(2) _____ Example: _____

(3) _____ Example: _____

(4) _____ Example: _____

2. If two teens who are in a dating relationship talk to each other disrespectfully on a relatively regular basis, it is not a cause for concern because they'll grow out of it.

True or False

3. Teens usually recognize that if their dating relationship is violent at times, it is a reason to end the relationship.

True or False

4. If a male student indicates that he is being abused by his girlfriend, he's probably not really talking about teen dating violence. After all, it is not likely that a girl can be a perpetrator.

True or False

5. Which of the following factors is a weak predictor of teen dating violence?

- a. Teens' attitudes toward the use of violence and aggression
- b. Teens' experience of community violence
- c. Having friends who are in violent dating relationships
- d. Teens' experience of inter-parental violence (domestic violence)
- e. Among girls, a history of sexual abuse or assault

6. Which of the following may happen to a victim of teen dating violence?

- (1) Adoption of risky sexual and/or drug taking behaviors
- (2) Social isolation
- (3) Physical signs of injury
- (4) Truancy
- (5) All of the above

7. If a student is experiencing violence in his/her dating relationship, in time, he/she will likely tell an adult.

True or False

8. Eighty percent of teens know other teens who have experienced violent dating relationships.

True or False